Community gardens are managed by neighborhood groups, some in partnership with a nonprofit organization. Community gardens are places for people to learn how to garden, and also to pick produce, depending on the location.

West End Improvement Group Community Vegetable Garden
Located on Laurel Avenue in the West End of Johnstown.
Services Provides various vegetables grown in 12 raised beds and 17 fruit trees to anyone in need. There is also a raised bed that is a pollinator garden.

Christian Home of Johnstown Community Gardens
Located in the 8th Ward at 1096 Edson Avenue, Johnstown.
Services Produce available to people in the 8th Ward and surrounding areas. The public can plant vegetables in available beds. Call 814-535-8775 for information.

Sandyvale Community Gardens
Located in Hornerstown at 80 Hickory Street, Johnstown.
Services The garden provides instructors who can teach community members about gardening and horticulture throughout the year. Food grown in the gardens and greenhouse are distributed to local organizations that feed people in need. Go to sandyvalememorialgardens.org for information.

Do you help to operate a community garden in Cambria or Somerset Counties that you would like to include on this list? Email details to United Way of the Laurel Highlands Community Relationship & Marketing Manager Rick Kazmer at rick@uwlaurel.org.
